

Job Description McDonald's Project Manager

About H&K

Founded in 1975, H&K International is a leading global supplier of stainless steel kitchen equipment to the food service industry with a long-established reputation for quality products, precision manufacturing and exceptional customer service. H&K delivers flexible, value-driven restaurant equipment solutions to major customers in North America, Latin America, Europe, Australia and Asia.

Summary

As the Project Manager reporting to the Sales Administration Manager, you are the link between our outside sales team, inside sales team (Project Administrators) and our customers. From the time our outside sales team turns in a quote, it will be the Project Manager to review drawings against the quote for accuracy, confirm all documentation is complete/included, manage, plan and coordinate for an easy transition to the PA. This key position will be the direct contact for the outside sales team and the customer to ensure completion of the project, while maintaining the highest standard of service to internal and external customers.

It is great if you have restaurant equipment experience, but it is not required. Many talented people from other industries have found a home and great success with H&K. As long as you have project management experience, enjoy a fast-paced environment, and assisting others, then we are looking for you!

Essential Functions
